ESSENTIAL QUESTIONS:

Essential questions are the heart of the curriculum. Essential questions are conceptual commitments that teachers will use to guide instructional decision-making. In addition, they are kid friendly so that students can easily understand them. Essential questions are meant to be shared with students in either discussion or posting in the classroom. Essential questions provide the focus for teaching and learning.

Assessing Essential Questions is key to a robust curriculum. If Essential Questions are the focal point of learning, how then do we assess students? The following are the Essential Questions for this class and an overview of recommended assessments to the Essential Questions. In addition, Differentiated learning opportunities are embedded as well.

Night

1. Have you ever been discriminated against? For what reason(s)? Please explain.
2. How would you place a value on a human life?

The Inferno

1. Have you ever been accused of a crime/wrong doing? Were you justly or unjustly accused?
2. Did the punishment you received fit the crime? Explain.

ROBUST VOCABULARY:

Robust vocabulary words are Tier 2 words, meaning that they are complex, powerful, and generalizable. Robust vocabulary words support language development of both lower and high level learners. In addition, robust vocabulary instruction helps prepare students for SATs, upper level high school classes, and college. "Studies showed that robust instruction was quite effective not only for learning the meanings of words but also for affecting reading comprehension." (p. 2 Bringing Words to Life).

Teachers are asked to commit to teaching and students USING these words throughout the entire year. Using a variety of instructional strategies, students will learn the meaning of these words in a deep and meaningful way in this content and across other content areas.
