

Blackhawk Foundation

Your contribution to the Blackhawk Foundation has the potential to double if you work for a company that matches employee gifts.

More than 10,000 companies in the United States corporate matching programs to their employees. These companies match your donations to many non-profit (501c3) organizations with corporate funds. The most you generally have to do is complete a simple form.

Please refer to your company's intranet or inquire with your Human Resources department to determine if your company has such a matching gift program and to determine if the Blackhawk Foundation is eligible to have your contribution matched by your employer.
